

ALL WE ASK,
Compare the Papers and
Subscribe for the Best.

The Daily Republican.

Vol. 5. No. 175.

Rushville, Indiana, Tuesday Evening, October 6, 1908.

EVERY EFFORT
Is Made to Give You
A Real Newspaper.

Single Copies, 2 Cents.

FIRE DESTROYS FIVE BUILDINGS

Arlington Visited by One of the Most Disastrous Blazes in Her History.

WAS OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

People Were Awakened by Three Men Who Left Town Before
Fire Started.

ARLINGTON'S FIRE.
Five Buildings Burned.
Estimated Loss $8000.
Insurance, $4000.
Fire thought to be of Incendiary Origin.
Explosion Frightened Fire Fighters.

The most disastrous fire in the history of Arlington occurred this morning about 3 o'clock. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. Five buildings were destroyed and the estimated loss is about $8000 and the insurance will cover about half the loss.

The buildings totally destroyed and the values are: Charles Meyers, building, $1500; Frank Mull, grocery managed by Jerry Matthews, $4000; Mrs. Stella Davis, residence and drug store, $1000; Harrison Hysong, restaurant, $100; Ed Lee, plumbing establishment, $200; Owen L. Carr, residence, occupied by Labe Long and family, $500; Wm. Matthews, residence, $600; Nola Beckner, pool room, four tables, $400.

The heaviest losers are Charles Meyers who held only about $1000 insurance; Mrs. Stella Davis, who carried a policy for $500; Wm. Matthews, whose policy calls for only $250; and Nola Beckner, whose insurance on the pool tables and furniture will not exceed $250. The other losers are almost wholly protected by insurance.

The fire was discovered in the rear of the Meyers building about fifteen minutes before 3 o'clock this morning. Guy Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. Labe Long was awakened by the crackling of the flames, and Mrs. Long was the first to see the fire. She gave the alarm and in a few minutes the whole town was fighting the flames. There was no chance of saving the Meyers building and the fire fighters turned all of their attention to saving the adjoining buildings. It was impossible to save the other four buildings in that half block, owing to the small space between them.

They had the hardest kind of work saving the J. M. Eaton store which is across the alley on the north, and the postoffice building which is across the alley on the west. The log house, owned by Wm. Matthews, the postmaster, and the fact that there was practically no wind, is all that saved these buildings. The log house resisted the inroads of the flames and kept the heat confined within the fire area. The fire fighters propped the wall of the house up in order to keep the heat from setting the postoffice on fire. The barns were fired, but the quick work of the fighters kept them from being seriously damaged. Wet blankets and old carpets were placed on the post-office roof to keep the sparks from doing damage. The houses across the street from the burning buildings were in danger two or three times when the blaze was at its worst, and for a time it looked as though it would be impossible to save them. The intense heat broke several windows in these houses.

Practically all of the people at Arlington are convinced that the Meyers building was set on fire. When Mrs. Long saw the flame, it was blazing about ten feet high and the flames were at the outside corner of the building coming up from the ground. There had been no fire in the building last night, and accidental origin looks improbable. A thing which strengthens their belief is that about 2:30 o'clock two men in a buggy and a man on horse back drove out of town north at break-neck speed. Several people were awakened and saw the parties but were unable to recognize them. They are convinced that these people set fire to the building.

The Meyers building is more than fifty years old and in the last few years fire has been discovered in it four different times. Three of these were of incendiary origin it is said. Last Sunday night, Labe Long who lives just back of the building heard what he thought was someone walking on the tin roof. At the time he thought nothing of it but now he thinks that an effort was being made then to destroy the building.

For several months the only pool in Arlington has been in the second story of the building. There has been considerable objection to this on the part of some of the citizens, but there is little credence given to the story that the building was fired on this account.

A short time after the fire started there was an explosion which jarred the whole town. Many of the fighters were so badly frightened by the explosion that they quit work temporarily. It was not for long however because it was afterward learned that a large tank of coal oil had caused the explosion.

Arlington people were desperate and fought valiantly from the time the first alarm was sounded until the fire was under control about five o'clock this morning. Men, women, and children formed bucket brigades that accomplished wonders. A garden hose attached to the town pump was used with some effect to keep the fire from spreading to the buildings across the street. Those who were not carrying water were carrying the contents of the burning building to safety. For a time it looked as if the whole town would go and the people thought of telephoning to this city for help. This was given up, however, because it was thought that by the time an engine could be gotten there the flames would be under control. Telephone lines between here and Arlington were torn down, and the word did not reach this city until about eight o'clock this morning.

MANY DOCTORS WILL MEET HERE

Physicians of Sixth District Will be Entertained by Rush County
Medical Association.

DEC. 3 WAS FIXED AS DATE

The Rush County Medical Association held a meeting in the office of Dr. Lowell Green yesterday to make preliminary arrangements for the entertainment of the doctors of the Sixth district. The following applications for entrance were presented and accepted: William T. Lampton, Merton Farlow and J. R. Hume of Milroy; Emerson Barnum and John D. Green of Manilla; and A. G. Shauk of Arlington. December 3 was the date fixed for the meeting. There will be over one hundred physicians here from all over the district and from Indianapolis. Discussions and papers from many noted doctors will be on the program for the afternoon and a banquet will be served in the evening. Several committees were appointed and other business matters were attended to.

An oak tree 60 feet high contains

DOG WRECKED AN AUTOMOBILE

Dr. Jewett and Harry Colter of Richland Have Miraculous Escape
From Death.

CAR WAS THROWN IN DITCH

Front Wheels Struck Dog Causing Driver to Lose Control of Steering Gear.

Dr. Jewett and Harry Colter of Richland had a miraculous escape from serious injury and possibly death last night. While riding in Dr. Jewett's touring car last night near the George Huffman farm north of Richland, the machine struck a dog. The car was thrown into the ditch at the side of the road and totally wrecked.

When the front wheel of the machine struck the dog Dr. Jewett, who was driving the car lost control of the steering gear and the machine veered to the left and upset in the ditch at the side of the road. The dog had been running after the machine barking at it and got too close to the wheels.

The machine was badly damaged and the occupants were thrown into the fence at the side. However, in some miraculous way, they escaped with scarcely a scratch.

SMALL SPINTER CAUSES MUCH PAIN

John Hatfield Cannot Sleep by Day or by Night—Penetrated the Joint.

WALKS STREETS ALL NIGHT

He hasn't insomnia nor is he a somnambulist but he just can't sleep. He walks around over the streets by night as well as by day. The occasion for this extraordinary mode of living is explained by a small splinter which gently pushed its way into the flesh of the little finger on the right hand of John Hatfield.

Mr. Hatfield is an employee of the Pinell & Tompkins Lumber company. The severe pain caused by the splinter in the finger keeps the patient from sleeping or even resting. The splinter had to be cut out soon after the accident as it had penetrated the joint.

TOMORROW IS JUNK DAY AT THE SCHOOL

Novel Plan is Panning Out Better Than Was First Anticipated
by School Faculty.

TO BUY BOOKS WITH PROCEEDS

The Havens school's novel plan for securing a library will probably prove more feasible and successful than at first anticipated. A number of people have telephoned that they would donate old rags and iron and tomorrow boys will be sent to gather in the junk. Some have volunteered to give cash—which of course, will be thankfully received.

GUNS AND KNIVES PLAYED A PART

In Trouble at Milroy According to Stories That Are Told—Williamstown Rout.

ROWDIES CAUSED TROUBLE

One Young Man Said to Have Been Injured—Grand Jury May Investigate.

There was a hot time in Milroy Saturday night.

There is likely to be a hotter time before the thing is finished. There was a running fight, a standing fight, a pitched battle, two or three wrestling matches and a few other things that go with a three ring circus if all reports are true.

It is said that for the last few Saturday nights several rowdies from Williamstown have been coming to Milroy and making themselves troublesome. In fact it is said that they have made themselves so troublesome that they have invited and enforced the invitation for the Milroy "boys" to keep off of the streets.

Saturday night the tables were turned. The Milroy "boys" were the victors and the foes from the south were repulsed in inglorious defeat. It is said that the trouble became so acute Saturday night that knives and revolvers were brought into play. It is also said that one young man was injured. It is likely that the grand jury will investigate.

WILL CULMINATE SOON IN WEDDING

Jealous Lovers are Sweethearts
Again After Man Has Shot
Girl and Then Himself.

IT READS LIKE STORY BOOK

Marshall Hollowell and Miss Mary
Ertle Will be Married in a Short Time.

Last spring Marshall Hollowell shot his sweetheart, Mary Ertle, and then shot himself. The young lady was not seriously injured, but Hollowell hovered between life and death for some time. Gradually he improved until he fully recovered.

An indictment was brought against him in the Rush circuit court for shooting with intent to kill. The intent clause was nullified and the young man plead guilty to assault and battery. He was fined by the court $100 which he paid.

Now that the case is out of court the young lady and Hollowell have settled their difficulty, and it is likely that the story book romance will culminate soon when the two will be united as man and wife.

WATSON CLUB MEETING

The Old Soldiers' Watson club will meet at the Republican headquarters Wednesday evening for the purpose of organization, and will be addressed by John M. Stevens and Capt. J. K. Gowdy. Music will be furnished by the Watson Glee club. The public is cordially invited.

According to authorities from 85 to 95 per cent. of the men in civilized lands are right-handed and have developed the low right shoulder.

WILL OF H. M. PIPER FILED

Late Falmouth Resident Left a Valuable Estate.

The will of the late Harvey M. Piper of Falmouth has been filed for probate in the Fayette courts. The will provides that all debts be paid as soon as possible. All the property, both personal and real, is bequeathed to the widow, during her life time.

At the death of the widow $1000 is to be paid to the grandchildren, William and Lucy Piper; at the widow's death all the other property is left to the son, Josiah E. Piper, in fee simple. The son is named as the executor of the estate. The latter has qualified by filing bond in the sum of $8000. The estate is particularly valuable as the decedent owned two fine farms.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD MEETS HERE

Begin a Two Days Session at United Presbyterian Church Neat
Tuesday.

SIX STATES REPRESENTED

The First Synod of the West will be held by the United Presbyterians at the church in this city next Tuesday and Wednesday. There will be about sixty delegates present, representing thirty United Presbyterian churches from six of the central States. Each church will send two delegates, one being the minister of the church and the other an elder. The six States represented are Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and Tennessee.

ART AND CURIO'S FROM MANY LANDS

Will be Shown at the Reception and Exhibit at the Guffin Home
Friday.

ARTICLES GATHERED ABROAD

Division C of the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will have a Curio and Art exhibit and reception on the afternoon and evening of Friday, October 9, at the home of Mrs. Sarah Guffin in North Morgan street.

Mrs. Claude Cambren and Mrs. A. P. Walker will add to Mrs. Guffin's large collection, making a display well worth seeing.

The afternoon hours will be from 2:30 to 5:30 and from 7:30 to 10 o'clock in the evening. A general invitation is extended to the public.

WILL ORGANIZE A CLUB

Young Men of Anderson Township
Will Organize Tonight.

The young men of Anderson township will meet in Milroy tonight to organize a Watson club. As this township is second in list having the largest number of first voters, a large membership is expected. Several young men from here will attend the meeting.

IMPROVEMENT OF MAIN STREET

Petition Filed Before the County Commissioners Today and Properly Published.

LEGALITY OF ACT QUESTIONED

From Nearly Every Standpoint it
Now Appears as if the Improvement is Assured.

A petition for improving Main street and paving it with brick from Cavitt's hill on the north to the first parting of the roads south of the city, was filed in the county commissioner's court today, but no definite action was taken. But two commissioners were present. Commissioner Amos favored the improvement while Commissioner Lyons opposed it. A legal discussion followed in which County Attorney Sexton questioned the legality of the act, holding that the city council did not have the right to delegate or invest such a power in the hands of the county commissioners. The court adjourned until next Friday morning, when the third member of the body, Commissioner Kelso, will be present.

However, the petition was properly filed at the session today, the names of over two hundred voters and freeholders were published and attested to—although the law only requires fifty names—and the first and most important step toward making the improvement was made. If the commissioners do not take a favorable view of the project, the matter will likely be mandated to the circuit court. Some of the best legal talent in the city argue that nothing remains for the commissioners' court but to appoint viewers who will report back the utility of the improvement, the estimated cost, kind of material to be used, etc.

In all probability the improvement will be made. While there is some opposition—as is always the case in public improvements—there are many big and influential taxpayers behind the project.

There is no politics in the matter, as some would believe, for the signers are about evenly divided in political affiliations.

SOCIETY NEWS

The Misses Laura and Nannie Alexander entertained with an elegant dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Shropshire, D. F. Matlock and family, Mrs. Maxie M. Bates and daughter, Miss Bessie, and Mrs. Belle M. Fox of Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Mrs. A. N. Newbold entertained Monday in honor of Mrs. Belle M. Fox of Colorado.

William D. Hufford and sons, south of town, entertained several guests today at dinner, including Mrs. T. J. Fox of Colorado, Mrs. Maxie M. Bates and Miss Florence Matlock of this city.

Miss Marie Carroll, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carroll of East Sixth street, and Mr. Edward Gantner, were married by Rev. Walter Cronin at the Catholic church at 6 o'clock this morning. Miss Margaret Carroll and John Conroy attended the bride and groom at the altar. Both are popular young people of Rushville and have many friends here. Quite a large number attended the wedding ceremony. The couple will be at home in West Third street.

MR. TAFT IN THE SHOW-ME STATE

Missourians All Clamor to See the Candidate.

HAD TO MAKE EXTRA STOPS

Upon Urgent Demands of Many Towns Through Which Taft Special Was Scheduled to Pass Without Stopping, the Train Was Stopped, Resulting in a Derangement of the Schedule, Which Made His Meeting at Macon More Than an Hour Late.

Macon, Mo., Oct. 6.—Judge William H. Taft made three speeches in Kansas and thirteen in Missouri Monday. Eight of the stops in the "Show-me state" were arranged upon urgent demands from towns through which the special was to have passed without stopping. This resulted in delaying the Taft special more than an hour, and the big audience at this place had to wait until nearly 10 o'clock for the appearance of the candidate.

While the name of Bryan was heard more than during any previous day of the trip, Mr. Taft's reception has been such as to cause him to express surprise and gratification, not only as to the number of people he has been able to address, but as to their cordial indication of friendliness. Speaking of his reception at several of the stops, Mr. Taft said:

"It is an augury that Missouri is going to 'show' somebody at the next election that she does not intend to remain a 'mysterious stranger,' but will become a regular resident among Republicans."

Throughout the day Mr. Taft hampered away on the necessity for the voters of the country to understand that a Democratic tariff revision meant a destruction of the market and prices of the product of the farm; that Republican revision meant a continuation of present prices and prosperity. He told the Missourians about the Bryan proposition with respect to the trusts—that the Nebraskan would destroy them by putting trust-made articles on the free list and by making a law prohibiting a trust from manufacturing or controlling more than 50 per cent of any article. While such a law, Mr. Taft believed, would be very difficult to enact, he predicted that its enforcement would be most disastrous.

BRYAN AT HAVELOCK

Candidate Takes Trolley Ride to a Neighboring Town.

Havelock, Neb., Oct. 6.—William J. Bryan was received here last night in a delirium of enthusiasm. His arrival from Lincoln shortly before 9 o'clock on a special trolley car, accompanied by 100 members of the Lincoln Home Guards, was the signal for the great demonstration. The carriage in which he rode to the city park, where he spoke to a large audience composed mostly of workmen in the railroad shops, ran a gauntlet of red fire and Roman candles, while the throngs on the sidewalks vociferously cheered him.

His remarks dwelt mainly on the subject of campaign publicity, election of senators by direct vote of the people, and the labor plank in the Denver platform. He was unsparing in his attacks on Speaker Cannon, Mr. Sherman, the Republican vice presidential candidate and Mr. Taft. First referring to the criticisms that heretofore had been heaped upon him for traveling over the country delivering political speeches, Mr. Bryan declared that he always had believed it was perfectly proper to speak to those who are to vote. He spoke of the fact that twelve years ago he had said that the president was only a hired man employed by the people to do what they wanted a president to do, and that although he was criticised by a New York paper for bringing the high office of president down to the level of a hired man, he had decided not to take the statement back. In his opinion every public official is a hired man.

"United States senators are hired men," he declared amid applause, "although many of them don't seem to think so."

WAITING ON CASTRO

Holland Ready to Face Any Situation in Venezuela.

The Hague, Oct. 6.—Premier Heemskerk, in a formal statement said that as yet no official reply has been received from Baron Seckendorff, the German minister at Caracas, who has charge of the Dutch interests in that country, relative to the attitude of President Castro, either toward receiving the second Dutch note or to answering it.

"Until the intentions of President Castro are known," said the premier "it will be impossible for our government to decide definitely upon the future course of action. Holland is ready to face any situation."

The premier concluded by saying that while diplomatically Holland has the support of all the powers, she is trusting especially to the sympathy of the United States.

KERN INVITED TO INAUGURATION

"Sunny Jim" Sherman Sends Message to Opponent.

A SALLY MERRILY GREETED

At the Home of His Opponent, Mr. Taft's Running Mate Left Word for John Kern to Be Present in Washington Next March to Witness the Inauguration of a Republican Vice President—Whirlwind Indiana Trip Terminated at Elkhart, Fine Crowds Turning Out at Every Point.

Elkhart, Ind., Oct. 6.—In an effort to catch up with the schedule, James S. Sherman's special train that yesterday traversed the entire length of Indiana, made seventy-two miles an hour over a part of the route, one mile being reeled off in 49 seconds. The pace was so fast that the engine was disabled and the train was again delayed until another engine was secured. Nine towns were included in the day's itinerary, starting with Evansville and ending at Elkhart. Indianapolis, the home of the Democratic vice presidential candidate, John W. Kern, was paid a five-minute visit. In a brief talk, Mr. Sherman paid a tribute to Mr. Kern's personality and asked that his neighbors convey an invitation to him to be present at the White House on March 4th to witness the inauguration of a Republican vice president. This tally of Mr. Sherman's was greeted with much merriment.

At Terre Haute, where railroad shops are located, the employees poured out to listen to a short talk on the tariff and its effects upon the workingman. At Muncie the candidate made a two-hour stop and addressed two large meetings. Here a portion of the platform upon which he was speaking gave way, but Mr. Sherman merely paused to remark that Republican platforms might be found faulty in October, but they were usually approved by all the people in November every four years.

Other stops were made at Wabash, Marion, North Manchester and Anderson, where through a misunderstanding of train orders the special passed the station and a large crowd followed it down the track, some of the more enthusiastic shouting "Hurrah for Sunny Jim. We'll follow him all over Indiana." At Marion, where the national soldiers' home is located, Mr. Sherman was greeted by a large crowd.

"Although I am in the state of Mr. Kern," said the candidate, "I still maintain that I am not in the enemy's country. There is no such thing for me on American soil as an enemy's country. I find no fault with individual Democrats. It is their judgment along economic and financial lines that is faulty and has always been so." Mr. Sherman paid a tribute to the old soldiers who had been the country's defenders.

The party arrived in this city late last night, where Mr. Sherman addressed a large gathering, which gave him a cordial reception. The speaker dealt with general issues of the campaign.

MR. KERN EXCITED

Candidate Talks to the People of the Tar Heel State.

Asheville, N. C., Oct. 6.—"Patriotic men everywhere will agree with me, that the third term idea is no more hateful to the minds of the American people than that the president of this great nation shall undertake to name and dictate his own successor."

Before one of the largest and most demonstrative audiences that has greeted him on his speaking campaign through the South, John W. Kern, Bryan's running mate on the national Democratic ticket, in these words arraigned the president and the leaders of the Republican campaign at a rally of North Carolina Democrats here.

He declared that he saw in recent utterances of Congressman Nicholas Longworth the plan of President Roosevelt to insure his return to the White House in 1916. He contrasted the course of the Republican leaders, which he described as merely an evasion of the popular antipathy to a third term, with the declaration of Mr. Bryan that if elected he would not again be a candidate, and brought the audience to its feet with an eulogy of Bryan as a candidate whose nomination was "demanded by all patriotic Americans."

Mr. Kern spoke in the large auditorium, which was crowded to its greatest capacity. The speaking was preceded by a parade of carriages and horsemen through the streets, which Governor Glenn of North Carolina said was the greatest political demonstration in this city since 1896. A striking feature was the presence of several hundred mountaineers on farm mules, who had ridden miles from surrounding counties to attend.

Amoy has been officially declared free from contagious diseases. This includes the cholera and the bubonic plague.

George Schiff, chief yeoman on the battleship Virginia, committed suicide at Manila.

INDIANA POLITICS

ROBERT G. TUCKER.

Indianapolis, Oct. 6.—Vice President Fairbanks made his first contribution to the campaign from the stump last night when he addressed a large meeting at Lebanon. It is reported that more people were turned away than were able to gain entrance to the opera house. Delegations were present from Crawfordsville, Frankfort, Thorntown, Zionsville, Advance and other points in the Ninth district. The vice president asserted that tariff is the paramount issue of the campaign. He defended the Republican party's position on that question and attempted to show wherein it would be disastrous to the country to return to the tariff principles advocated by the Democrats. He was not stingy in his praise of Taft, picturing him as a man pre-eminently qualified for the office of president. He also paid a high compliment to James S. Sherman, candidate for the vice presidency. Mr. Fairbanks made an earnest appeal for the election of James E. Watson for governor, and James A. Hemenway for United States senator. Touching on the temperance question, he defended his party's advocacy of county local option. There were some, he said, who doubted the party's sincerity on the issue, but he pointed to the enactment of the law by the special session and declared that the party has kept its faith. He demanded for Watson much credit for the enactment of the law. In urging the election of a Republican legislature he said that it not only means the re-election of Hemenway, but that it would keep the Democrats from putting through a legislative gerrymander that might give them control of Indiana for a long time. Mr. Fairbanks was received with enthusiasm.

"I regard Theodore Roosevelt as the most dangerous character ever in our public life," declared Augustus Thomas of New York. "I believe that back of the mind that occupies the White House there lurks the dream of empire, and the startling utterance of Nicholas Longworth that after Taft should come Roosevelt for eight years more as president is an indication of that dream." Thomas addressed a big

AUGUSTUS THOMAS.

Democratic meeting at the Auditorium in Virginia avenue last night. He arrived from St. Louis and went from this city to Cincinnati for speech tonight. He is the well-known playwright, author of "In Mizzouri," "The Witching Hour," and several others equally well-known and popular. Thomas takes naturally to politics. He was a newspaper man in St. Louis years ago, and a good one, too, and he left the business only when he got into playwriting so deep that he could not get out. As an author he has been notably successful. Ever since Bryan came into public life Thomas has been one of his strongest admirers. He has campaigned for Bryan in three campaigns. This was his first speech in Indianapolis, and it was revealed that he is one of the most dramatic speakers before the public.

The managers of the Independence party's campaign in Indiana filed with the secretary of state today a petition, signed by over 1,000 names, asking that the Independence ticket be placed on the ballot. The signatures were obtained in various sections of the state. Under the law 500 signatures are sufficient to insure a ticket a place on the ballot.

To those afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble, backache, rheumatism, Pineules for the Kidneys brings relief in the first dose. Hundreds of people today testify to their remarkable healing and tonic properties. 30 days' trial $1.00. They purify the blood. Sold by Lytle's drug store.

LUCRETIA: Just learned that Gold Medal Flour is sifted ten times through finest silk. EUGENIA.

Daily Markets

The following are the ruling prices in the Rushville market, corrected to date—October 6, 1908.

GRAIN.

New Wheat	95
Oats, per bushel	45
Dry Corn	70
Timothy seed, per bu	$1.50
Clover seed, per bu	4.50
Timothy—buying price at farm according to quality, either baled or loose	$6.00
Mixed Timothy	$4.00 @ $5.00

CATTLE, SHEEP AND HOGS

By U. G. Beaver.

Hogs, 200 to 250lb	$6.45 @ $6.60
Hogs, 150 to 180lb	5.95 @ $6.20
Pigs	4.00 @ $5.00
Sheep	2.75 @ $3.00
Stock Sheep	2.00 @ $2.50
Beef Cows	3.50 @ $4.00
Heavy Steers, 1000 to 1200lb	4.00 @ $2.50
Thin Beef Cows	2.00 @ $2.50
Thin Steers, 700 to 900lb	3.50 @ $4.50
Stock Steers	3.00 @ $3.50
Bologna	2.00 @ $2.50
Fat Butchered Bulls	3.00 @ $3.25
Heavy Heifers, 700 to 900lb	3.50 @ $4.00
Light Heifers, 500 to 700lb	3.00 @ $3.50
Thin Heifers	2.50 @ $3.00
Lambs	3.00 @ $4.50

POULTRY.

Toms	7c
Chickens	9c
Hens, on foot per pound	9c
Ducks, per pound	7c
Geese, per pound	5c
Turkeys, per pound	11c

PRODUCE.

Eggs, per dozen	20c
Butter, country, per pound	18c

Indianapolis Grain and Livestock. Wheat—Wagon, 98c; No. 2 red, 99 1/2c. Corn—No. 2, 78 1/2c. Oats No. 2 mixed, 50c. Hay—Clover, $12.00 @ $13.00; timothy, $14.00 @ $15.50; mixed, $13.00 @ $14.50. Cattle—$3.50 @ $6.50. Hogs—$5.00 @ $7.20. Sheep—$2.50 @ $3.75. Lambs—$3.00 @ $5.25. Receipts—$2,000 hogs; 650 cattle; 100 sheep.

At Cincinnati. Wheat—No. 2 red, $1.01. Corn—No. 2, 78 1/2c. Oats—No. 2, 52c. Cattle—Steers—$4.75 @ $7.75; stockers and feeders, $3.00 @ $4.50. Hogs—$5.00 @ $7.00. Sheep—$3.00 @ $4.50. Lambs—$4.25 @ $6.50.

Livestock at New York. Cattle—$3.75 @ $6.10. Hogs—$5.00 @ $7.75. Sheep—$3.00 @ $4.50. Lambs—$4.50 @ $7.00.

At East Buffalo. Cattle—$4.50 @ $6.40. Hogs—$3.50 @ $7.20. Sheep—$2.00 @ $4.75. Lambs—$5.00 @ $6.65.

Wheat at Toledo.

May, $1.05 1/2; Dec., $1.01 1/2; cash, $1.01.

"Health Coffee" is the cleverest imitation of real coffee ever yet made. Dr. Shoops created it from pure parched grains, malt, nuts, etc. Fine in flavor—is made in just one minute. No 20 or 30 minutes tedious boiling. Sample free. Sold by F. B. Johnson & Co.

Hundreds of people who suffer from backache, rheumatism, lame back, lumbago and similar symptoms of kidney trouble. Pineules for the Kidneys, act directly on the kidneys, bringing quick relief to backache and other symptoms of kidney and bladder derangements. 30 days' trial $1 and guaranteed, or money back. Sold by Lytle's drug store.

CLARKSBURG STATE BANK

CLARKSBURG, INDIANA

Capital $25,000.00

Surplus $3,000.00

Will Pay You 3 per cent. Interest

on Six Months Deposits

Will Lend You Money on First Real Estate Mortgage.

For Further Information Write or Call on . . .

W. J. GEMMILL, Cashier

MONEY FOR COAL

Winter will soon be here and no doubt you will want to lay in a supply of Coal, Clothing, etc., while it is cheap, but find that you are short of money to do so, but don't worry. COME TO US, and we will be glad to loan you whatever

County News Items

Interesting Facts Gathered During the Week by Our Regular Correspondents.

Manilla.

Miss Lida Patterson of Freeport and Miss Vera Jones of Kansas visited Ralph Shelton and wife Wednesday.

J. A. Shelton and wife attended the funeral of William Guffin at Rushville last Wednesday.

N. C. Bennett of New Albany is spending a few days in Manilla. He is just recovering from a severe sickness.

Rev. Winne, pastor of the Christian church, has resigned to take a charge elsewhere.

The personal property and real estate of C. M. Taylor, deceased, will be sold Oct. 7, at public sale.

The Ladies Industrial Society will meet at the home of Mrs. David Miller Wednesday, October 7.

W. E. Inlow will start in a few days to visit his western ranch. He will go some weeks.

J. T. Arbuckle of Rushville was in MaMilla last Friday.

Mrs. H. O. Gross was very sick the latter part of the week, but is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mull, Mrs. Sallie Alexander, Mrs. J. E. Alexander and W. A. Mull were on our streets Sunday in Mr. Mull's new auto.

Dr. Barnum has sold his interest in his Fayette county farm to Wm. Wilcoxen of Gwynneville.

Noah Goddard and family left Monday for California. They will spend the winter on the pacific coast for the benefit of his son's health.

Quite a number of admirers of good horses went to Morristown last Saturday to the horse show. Among the "old timers" were, James Sells, C. E. Inlow and James Westerfield.

Miss Pansy McClure of Sullivan, Ind., has accepted a position as head trimmer in Miss Bessie Davis' millinery store.

Thomas K. Mull has been sick for the past few days.

John Henderson and wife spent Sunday with their son Bert, who lives near Blue Ridge.

A game of Basket ball was played here Friday evening. The contesting teams were Manilla and Arlington. Score 20 to 13 in Manilla's favor.

Work on the Gahimer tile ditch has been delayed for some time on account of not being able to secure the tile. Should heavy rains come the work will be retarded still more by caving as much of the excavating is done.

The first number of the lecture course will be given at the Methodist Church October 13. It will be a musical entertainment displaying some good talent.

The Manilla band was ushered into existence last Wednesday evening. The organization consists of seventeen members, several of whom were members of the Sumner band which recently ceased playing. Now, the remainder of the campaign will be a good time to get practice. Nearly all of the members are experienced band men and we may expect some good music without the usual preliminaries.

Hawkins Corner.

Mrs. Goley called on Mrs. Vogel Saturday evening.

Tillie Ninstead is working for Mrs. Goley.

Mrs. Stiers is visiting relatives here this week.

Ben Stiers and family spent Saturday and Sunday with homefolks.

Mrs. and Mrs. Goley spent Sunday with C. O. Kennett and family.

C. O. Vogel was a business caller at Clarksburg Saturday.

J. B. McHenry went to Clarksburg one day last week.

James Fisher was a Rushville caller Saturday.

Ralph Hood spent Sunday with Harry Vogel.

Chas Hood spent Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. Mary Stiers returned home Saturday.

J. W. Hood was a business caller at Rushville Saturday.

Wm. Warren of Greensburg visited relatives in this neighborhood last week.

Mrs. Kate Speer spent last week with her father J. M. Keisling. Mr. Speer spent Sunday with them. They will return home Monday.

Earnest White visited homefolks Sunday.

Wheat is all sowed in this neighborhood. It was all sowed in the dust.

Neff's Corner.

Gideon Parker is hauling rocks on the Andersonville pike.

Mrs. Calvin Gwinup is sick.

Clem Smith is painting the Mt. Zion church this week.

Bessie Jameson came home from Shelbyville this week, bringing her sister Puss with her.

John Hume of Milroy was the guest of John Ryon and family Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Conner of Rushville attended meeting at Salt Creek Sunday.

J. J. Lefforge lost a valuable horse Friday which had got hurt on a hay rake.

Vern E. Lewis and wife attended church at Andersonville Sunday evening.

Elder Floyd of Dublin will preach this winter at the Mt. Zion church.

The farmers of this vicinity are cutting fodder.

In and Around Fairview.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of John Clifford, which was held at the Fairview church Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Rev. F. W. Sumner pastor of the Fairview Christian church of which Mr. Clifford was a faithful member. Officiating. Burial in the cemetery adjoining.

Mr. Lou Ging of Gings who has been keeping a store in Fairview for some time has sold his stock of merchandise to Mrs. Ella Benson and daughter who will conduct a general store in Fairview.

Charles McGraw who sold his house on lot in Fairview to Mrs. Lavina Jackson. He moved his household effects to Connersville last week, where he will make his future home. Mrs. Jackson now occupies the house vacated by McGraw.

A large concourse of friends and neighbors turned out to pay their last respects to Harvey Piper whose funeral was held at the Fairview Cemetery church Friday afternoon at two o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. S. M. Hawthorne, a former pastor of the Christian church here, assisted by Rev. M. S. Taylor, pastor of the M. E. church at Falmouth. Interment in the adjoining Cemetery. Mr. Piper came from Bourbon county, Kentucky, with his parents when he was two years old. He was 33 years 4 months and 4 days old when he died.

Mrs. Mary Haley of Connersville is visiting old neighbors and friends in Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Daubenspeck and son Walker and Mrs. Lou Thrasher called Saturday, on Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bowles and their new daughter which arrived at their home at Mays on Sept. 25. Mrs. Boles was formerly Miss Emma Brown of Fairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Blackridge from near Rushville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Durbin Sunday.

Mr. Vincent Gibbs of Connersville was the dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs.

John Brown Sunday, and in the afternoon called on Jacob Kinder who is quite sick at his home Southwest of FGairview.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry Rush and daughter Almira of Mays were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Rush Sunday.

The pupils of Prof. Alf. Hall's school surprised him Saturday night. The evening was spent in a very social way. Refreshments were served and at a late hour they returned to their homes. They were well pleased with their efforts for the Professor was completely taken by surprise. He hardly knew whether he was standing on his head or feet. Mr. Hall is principle of the Ging school.

Glenwood.

Hon. O. L. Clawson of Marion, who was born and raised in this neighborhood, came back to his old home to see his old friends and neighbors. He says Glenwood has made more improvement than any town in the gas belt and you know Marion is in the gas belt. He met many of his old friends and classmates. Mr. Clawson is having success in the practice of law.

There will be a social at the old U. P. church October 9th under the auspices of the E. L. There will be oysters, ice cream and cake served at the customary prices.

Mrs. Lena Whitton and Ione Gossnell were in town one day last week.

Mrs. Gant of Mays is visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Fulton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bilby and family attended church at the M. E. church Sabbath morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Chrisman and daughter attended church at the M. E. church Sunday morning. They also visited T. E. Murphy and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Martin heard Rev. George B. Walls preach at the M. E. church.

Otto Cameron had a slight attack of quinsy last week.

Will Frazee has sold the Nash farm to Chicago parties and will give possession in January.

There will be a wedding in this vicinity this week; we have not learned the parties as yet.

Messrs. Will Frazee and Robert Tompkins were sight seeing in our neighborhood one day last week.

Rev. Walls preached a very powerful and convincing sermon at the M. E. church Sunday morning. His theme was "Christian Companionship." His text was "Enoch walked with God and was not for God took him." An extraordinary large and attentive audience greeted him.

Bro. Gordon will preach at the U. P. church next Sabbath morning and night.

Ernest Perry is now at work on the C. H. & D. and is making his home at Martin B. Wright's.

A. H. Hinchman has inflammatory rheumatism in his hand, which compels him to let his substitute run the rural route for him. Mr. Wright is a substitute.

J. F. Vandiver was home from Indianapolis, where he is working at his trade as a barber.

Miss Ruth Chew has returned to the Lafayette sanitarium.

Mrs. Sarah Wardwell has returned home for a short time.

A. L. Chew installed an F. P. lighting system at the Little Flatrock Christian church one day last week.

Rev. George B. Walls moved into the new M. E. parsonage lately purchased from Dr. J. T. Paxton.

Franz Stamm has started his new house. He wishes to get it plastered before freezing weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Clem Humes and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Reynolds.

Strengthen your weak stomach, Heart and Kidney nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Don't drug the Stomach or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. Vitilize these weak inside nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how fast good health will come to you.

Sold by F. B. Johnson & Co.

The Indiscretion of Kern.

Mr. Bryan's running mate on the Democratic ticket, Mr. Kern, in the course of a speech in Baltimore Sept. 23 declared himself as follows: "Under our system of jurisprudence every man is presumed innocent until his guilt is satisfactorily shown."

This is an amazing statement. It shows that Mr. Kern has either imperfectly rehearsed the part assigned to him by Mr. Bryan or has deliberately changed his lines to suit his own fancy. In any event he is likely to receive a sharp reprimand from his chief.

It is self evident that if Mr. Kern's proposition is true of individuals it is equally true of corporations. Yet Mr. Bryan's contention is that the mere existence of an interstate corporation proves that it is a lawless organization and should be smashed on general principles. The idea that such a body has definite legal rights and that those rights cannot be forfeited except by due process of law is intolerable to Mr. Bryan. He would destroy the corporations and, if need be, try them afterward. He complains that the "trust magnates" have not been slapped into prison. The fact that they have not been indicted, tried, convicted and sentenced in due form as prescribed by law is nothing to him. He is reaching out for a revolutionized system, under which the president shall be judge, jury and executioner, and he won't be happy until he gets it.

Mr. Bryan is an advocate of lynch law for interstate corporations. He has convicted them already and would subject them to summary execution if he could have his way. His policies would not only forfeit the property rights of shareholders in such corporations, but would enormously increase the cost of production and distribution in many of our greatest industries. The highly organized methods which now provide unsurpassed facilities for exchange between producer and consumer would be seriously injured if not actually destroyed by the application of the Bryan policies. Who can doubt that the result would be an increase in the cost of production, an increase in the cost of transportation and hence an increase in the cost to the consumer of commodities so affected?

Mr. Kern's talk about punishing corporations only after due process of law is a grave indiscretion. It is a contradiction and almost a betrayal of the whole Bryan programme. The Nebraska agitator has already entered a verdict of guilty against the corporations and passed the death sentence upon them. His policy is, "Due process of law be hanged, and the corporations along with it!"

Bryan Knows It's Bosh.
President Roosevelt hits the nail on the head when he points out that Bryan's pretended remedies for corporation evils are chimerical. Courtesy probably prevented the president from adding that the alleged remedies are so chimerical, impracticable and utterly at variance not only with the constitution of the United States, but with the rights of property everywhere throughout civilization, as to suggest insincerity on the part of the person submitting such flimsy absurdities.

We have before pointed out that Bryan's plan of preventing any corporation from doing more than 50 per cent of the total business in any particular line would invalidate the patent and trademark laws of the United States and rob each and every inventor of half the income to which he is entitled. It would involve an inquisition into every large business handling certain articles exclusively, and it might readily be construed to cover proprietary articles of every sort. But why pursue the subject? President Roosevelt has chosen the more polished phrase—"chimerical." The fact is, however, in plain talking English, it's bosh, just bosh, and Bryan knows it's bosh.

President Roosevelt again hits the nail on the head when he says that "no law defying corporation has anything to fear from you (Bryan) save what it will suffer in the general paralysis of business which any attempt on your part to reduce to practice what you have advocated would bring." True, and it is also true that the one corporation conspicuous for its defiance of law and dealing in an article in common use all over the world seems quite ready to run the risk of Bryanism for the prospect which Bryanism holds out of continuing to defy the law. The corporation in question regards Mr. Taft's election very much as a burglar regarded his arraignment in court before a certain judge. The burglar was trembling and evidently very much worried. "You need not fear," said his honor. "I will see that you have full justice done you." "Your honor, that is just what I'm afraid of," replied the burglar.

"Is fiction declining?" asks a Chicago paper, the editor of which evidently is not reading Mr. Bryan's speeches.

"No boss shall run the Democratic party," says Mr. Bryan, meaning, of course, "no other boss."

WALL PAPER

WALL PAPER

PAINTS

PAINTS

We want to figure with you for your painting NOW is a fine time to paint your buildings, We carry a full line of Lead Oil, Varnishes, Glass Brushes, etc.

WE GUARANTEE ALL OUR WORK
FINE FRAMING A SPECIALTY

McCARTY'S

RUSHVILLE STEAM LAUNDRY

HAND WORK

We use pure condensed water, and pure soap to wash your clothes.

Phone 1342

W.B. Reduse CORSETS

The Perfect Corset for Large Women

It places over-developed women on the same basis as their slender sisters. It tapers off the bust, flattens the abdomen, and absolutely reduces the hips from 1 to 5 inches. Not a harness—not a cumbersome affair, no torturing straps, but the most scientific example of corsetry, boned in such a manner as to give the wearer absolute freedom of movement.

New W. B. Reduse No. 770 for large tall women. Made of white cotton. Hose supporters front and sides, also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

New W. B. Reduse No. 772 for large short women, is the same as No. 770, except that the bust is somewhat lower all around. Made of white cotton. Hose supporters front and sides. Also made in batiste. Sizes 20 to 36. Price $3.00.

Ask any dealer anywhere to show you the New W. B. "Hip-subduing" models from $1.00 to $3.00 per pair.

WEINGARTEN BROS., Mfrs., 377-379 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

MAUZY & DENNING

USE THE BEST WHITE STAR FLOUR

Sold By

J. A. CRAIG,

A. L. ALDRIDGE,

THEO. H. REED & SON

The Want

THE DAILY REPUBLICAN

Published Daily except Sunday by

THE REPUBLICAN COMPANY

J. FEUDNER, Sole Proprietor.

Office, Republican Building, Northwest Corner Second and Perkins Streets

Entered as second-class matter March 22, 1904, at the postoffice at Rushville, Indiana, under the act of Congress of March 3, 1897.

One week delivered by carrier.....	.10
One year in the city by carrier.....	$4.00
One year delivered by mail.....	$3.00

TELEPHONE NUMBER, 1111.

Tom J. Geraghty, City Editor.

Claude Simpson, Associate City Editor.

Tuesday, October 6, 1908.

It is indeed regrettable that it has become necessary for Mr. Watson's friends here in Rushville to issue a statement commendatory of Watson's good moral character. But this was made necessary by the low, dirty campaign which is being conducted by the Democrats through its brewery and saloon alliance. Bad company is conducive to bad habits. Even here at home, where they surely know better, the same spirit prevails among the Democrats. Even if they do not personally engage in these dirty slanders, they countenance and give it silent consent. On this subject the Fort Wayne News says:

It is indeed, regrettable that the men who are Mr. Watson's neighbors and who know him best should feel constrained to card the papers in his defense and by their testimony refute the outrageous slanders of a partisan and unscrupulous press. At the outset of the present campaign the Democratic press association of Indiana met and resolved to conduct "A clean and decent campaign." In the face of this voluntary declaration the majority of the editors began at once the most vituperative and abusive campaign the State has known since the slimy days of 1884. Mr. Watson has been the particular target for misrepresentation and vilification and it is because of this fact that he is publicly defended by the ministers of Rushville.

It is regrettable that such a course on their part was necessary, but it should at least serve to still the tongue of unworthy slander.

In this connection, and it is to the lasting credit of the Republican press of the State, it is noted that it has not been deemed in order for anyone to reply to any attack on Mr. Marshall. The worst that has been said of him is that his associates are not all they should be. On this subject it would, no doubt, be very diverting to have the candid, private opinion of Mr. Marshall himself.

Because Gompers has been boasting his friend Bryan in Indiana the past week and urging all his hearers to vote for him, it must not be inferred that the little man at the head of the American Federation of Labor has all his fellow workers with him. In New York the other day John W. Armstrong, an organizer for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who was sent to Maine by President Gompers to make speeches for the Democratic State ticket, came out for Taft and Sherman. In his speech he said:

"The men whom I have met and conversed with in the American Federation of Labor are, as a rule, of the opinion that it would be unwise to support Bryan. The election of Mr. Taft means the resumption of business upon safe and sound lines. I have an abiding faith in the intelligence and loyalty of the workingmen to vote for Taft and the party and principles that made it possible for our workingman to occupy the eminent position he does, as compared with the position occupied by the unfortunate brothers of the Democratic South, where the Democratic party has opposed the enactment of factory laws, child labor laws and the organization of workingmen."

Mrs. Robertson had been a sufferer for many long months, but bore her pain with fortitude and uncomplainingly.

She was aware of the approach of death, and set her house in order and made all arrangements for her funeral, even to the smallest detail.

Early in life she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and remained a faithful member to the end. She left the following message to her friends: "My nearest relations and friends: We have met together for the last time on earth. You will see my face no more, and though I can not speak to you, I say by this, farewell. God bless you all."

A good woman has passed to her reward, and her works do follow her.

No Laughing Allowed There.

Neither men nor women are allowed to laugh when their nerves are shattered. That is, their nerves don't allow them to. But one box of Sexine Pills will make you feel better. $1 a box; six boxes $5, with full guarantee for any form of weakness in men or women. Address or call Hargrove & Mullin, Rushville. This is the store that sells all the principal remedies and does not substitute.

Large barrels for tanks and cisterns at E. A. Lee's.

CLAIMS LINCOLN A BRYAN MAN

Ridiculous Statement by the Democratic Gubernatorial Candidate, Thomas Marshall.

DEMOCRATS ARE ANNOYED

Old Soldiers Indignant Because Marshall Drags Name of Lincoln Into This Campaign.

The reduced postage on letters between this country and Great Britain came into force October first. This reduction is expected to increase the correspondence between the two countries, and that is to be welcomed, for the more people of different nations know about each other, the more it makes for international friendship, peace and progress.

Lord Roslyn thought he had discovered an infallible plan for breaking the bank at Monte Carlo, but his experimental tests did not vindicate his views. Some way these people who have a sure method of breaking the bank at gambling invariably get broken. They seem never to learn until too late that the odds are all on the side of the gambler.

The bar-tenders union in session at Vincennes decided that it was a life and death struggle with them and that their only hope was in the Democratic party.

MRS. J. J. ROBERTSON.

Mrs. Cynthia M. Robertson was one of four children born to Hiram and Anna Seeley, in Shelby county, January 20, 1840, where she spent her young girlhood with her parents. On September 12, 1858, she was united in marriage to J. J. Robertson, and in 1863 moved with her husband to Rush county, where she has resided ever since.

To this union was born two children, both sons, one of whom, Oriel, died January 7, 1889; the other, William, being privileged to enjoy the last days of his mother's stay on earth.

Mrs. Robertson passed out of this life on the early morning of Monday, September 28th, aged 68 years, 8 months and 8 days.

She was a true wife and mother, and was ever solicitous for the health and comfort of her family. One blessing she highly appreciated was the presence of her son, who came from his far Western home in order to be with his parents in his mother's last hours.

She was a Christian woman and so lived that instead of having terrors for death, she welcomed it as a relief from suffering and the gain of a home in heaven.

Mrs. Robertson had been a sufferer for many long months, but bore her pain with fortitude and uncomplainingly.

She was aware of the approach of death, and set her house in order and made all arrangements for her funeral, even to the smallest detail.

Not only is Mr. Marshall appealing for Republican votes on the ground that Lincoln would be a Bryan Democrat, but he is attacking President Roosevelt, and his policies in nearly every speech he makes. No other speaker who has appeared in Indiana this year has been as bitter toward President Roosevelt as Mr. Marshall, who, it is admitted, cannot be elected except by the votes of members of the Republican party.

In this connection Mr. Marshall's statement that Lincoln would have been a Bryan Democrat if he were alive today an interesting story was related which is in substance that Marshall is not himself a Bryan man. It was said that in 1896 Mr. Marshall made a number of speeches in Indiana urging the election of Benjamin F. Shively for governor, but that in no speech did he mention Bryan's name. It was said by the man who related the story that not until this campaign has Mr. Marshall ever spoken in words of praise of Mr. Bryan.

Pains of women, head pains, or any pain stopped in 20 minutes sure,

with Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets.

See full formula on 25c Box. Sold by F. B. Johnson & Co.

For all kinds of stamping, needle-work and floss see Miss Alma Conaway at her home, 534 North Morgan St. Phone 1538.

156-dlmo

Buy a sack of Diamond Patent Flour and make your wife glad. Sold by J. A. Craig.

16046

If you want a closed winter Buggy see Neutzenhelzer

SUETTER

DEVIL COMING TO RUSHVILLE

Sensational Story of the Season Will Appear in the Daily Republican Soon.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS ARE ADDED

Subscription List of Republican is Enjoying a Wonderful Growth —Some of the Reasons.

Indianapolis, Oct. 6. [Special.]—Reports received here indicate that Thomas R. Marshall's assertion that Abraham Lincoln, if he were living today, would vote for Bryan and would be classed as a Bryan Democrat has aroused great indignation throughout Indiana.

No one of those who are connected with Marshall's campaign for Governor can account for this strange assertion. It is causing the Democratic leaders no end of annoyance as they are unable to see why Mr. Marshall should have the audacity to make the assertion that the martyred president, who was one of the fathers of the Republican party, would vote for Bryan if he were alive. Much less do they comprehend his claim that Lincoln was a Bryan Democrat.

Mr. Marshall has evidently heard from some of his constituents on this matter as he has shown his irritation by stating that he will not dissent in his use of Lincoln's name as a Bryan Democrat until an injunction is issued against him.

Inasmuch as no one would possibly go to the extreme of enjoining Mr. Marshall from claiming that Lincoln was a Bryan Democrat his statement is in line with others he has made in evading all questions as to whether or not he would sign a bill to repeal the county vocal option law.

Reports indicate very definitely that especially are the old soldiers who fought under Lincoln indignant that he should be classed as a Bryan Democrat more than forty years after his death at the hands of an assassin.

The old soldiers do not understand Mr. Marshall's motives. They are showing that they resent his efforts to drag Lincoln's name into his campaign in hopes of getting votes for the Democrats.

It is being pointed out that the average old soldier has never considered Mr. Marshall and his associates in politics the defenders of Lincoln and his policies.

On the other hand it is said that they feel that many of the men who are back of Mr. Marshall and who are putting money into his campaign are the ones who have time and again traduced the name of Lincoln in trying to bring about the defeat of the Republican party.

Therefore, it is strange, especially to the old soldiers, that Marshall should now assert that Lincoln would be a Bryan Democrat if he were alive. As men who fought with Lincoln, the old soldiers are showing that they feel it is up to them to resent Mr. Marshall's insult.

She was a Christian woman and so lived that instead of having terrors for death, she welcomed it as a relief from suffering and the gain of a home in heaven.

Mrs. Robertson had been a sufferer for many long months, but bore her pain with fortitude and uncomplainingly.

She was aware of the approach of death, and set her house in order and made all arrangements for her funeral, even to the smallest detail.

Not only is Mr. Marshall appealing for Republican votes on the ground that Lincoln would be a Bryan Democrat, but he is attacking President Roosevelt, and his policies in nearly every speech he makes. No other speaker who has appeared in Indiana this year has been as bitter toward President Roosevelt as Mr. Marshall, who, it is admitted, cannot be elected except by the votes of members of the Republican party.

In this connection Mr. Marshall's statement that Lincoln would have been a Bryan Democrat if he were alive today an interesting story was related which is in substance that Marshall is not himself a Bryan man. It was said that in 1896 Mr. Marshall made a number of speeches in Indiana urging the election of Benjamin F. Shively for governor, but that in no speech did he mention Bryan's name. It was said by the man who related the story that not until this campaign has Mr. Marshall ever spoken in words of praise of Mr. Bryan.

Pains of women, head pains, or any pain stopped in 20 minutes sure,

with Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets.

See full formula on 25c Box. Sold by F. B. Johnson & Co.

156-dlmo

Buy a sack of Diamond Patent Flour and make your wife glad. Sold by J. A. Craig.

16046

If you want a closed winter Buggy see Neutzenhelzer

SUETTER

FAILED TO HEAR WARNING CRY

Columbus Richey of Milroy Instantly Killed by Big Four Freight Yesterday.

HEARING WAS DEFECTIVE

His Two Children Had Asked Him Not to Walk on Railroad Track.

Last week the Daily Republican took on, without solicitation, twenty-four new subscribers. It would hardly be fair to pass this fact by without making some note of it, inasmuch as everybody takes the paper now, and our list should continue to grow, even in the face of a campaign. We have five or six hundred Democratic subscribers who continue taking the paper without protesting to the politicos we carry in our columns at the present time. They understand that we conduct a Republican party paper, but at no time—as it is not necessary—do we sacrifice legitimate news stories for a lot of political drivel and twiddle-twaddle. As we said in a recent issue, what we say politically, we aim to say in a clean, conservative, consistent and dignified manner. Our readers appreciate this, and when we see fit to expound political doctrines, they are heeded and strike center.

Mr. Richey was standing on the track watching a meadow fire nearby. His hearing was defective and he could neither hear the cries of the farm hand fighting the flames nor the noise of the approaching train. The engine struck him in the back, killing him instantly. His back was broken and his body badly mangled and bruised. His children had often asked him not to walk on the track because of his hearing.

Mr. Richey was 52 years old. He is survived by two children, Roy and Ora. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist church in Milroy, conducted by Rev. Baldridge. Burial will occur in the Milroy cemetery.

GRAND JURY WILL MEET AGAIN FRIDAY

Will Probably Make Some Disposition of the Case of Young Girl Held in Jail.

TO MAKE USUAL INSPECTIONS

The grand jury will convene Friday and will likely be in session two days. In addition to making the usual inspection of the county institutions and premises, they will likely make some disposition of the case of Minnie Harmon Blackburn, who is in jail, accused of furnishing saws to Ray Zearinger, who figured in a near-escape last Saturday.

CLARISSA: Don't get discouraged. Order a sack of Gold Medal Flour.

MALINDA

L. L. Allen

rocer

Phone 1246

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1908,

beginning at one o'clock p. m. the following property:

Three good work mares, 1 four-year-old gelding, 1 spring colt.

Twenty-five head of hogs, 40 head of breeding ewes.

One good road wagon, 1 pair hay bed, 1 Deering binder, 2 cultivators, 2 brake plows, 1 planter, 4 sets of work harness, and household goods.

Usual terms until September, 1909.

HENRY NEFF.

THERE'S A VARIETY

GROCERIES

COUNTY OPTION! FORGET IT!

Think About Your Wife's Troubles.

SHE'LL HAVE THEM PLENTY IF YOU DIE WITHOUT INSURANCE. TALK IT OVER WITH FOLSOM.

GRAND

THEATRE
TONIGHT.
EXTRA.

THE VINCENTS,
Frank and Estella,
In an Entire Change
Of Vaudeville.

NOTE: Mr. Vincent is lately
of the Al. G. Field's Minstrels.

Complete Change of Moving Pictures

SONG
Rainbow.
MISS IVA BROWN

No Advance in Price
5c Admission to All 5c
The
Old Reliable

GRAND

THE NEW
Vaudet
TONIGHT

JOE BURTO,
Comedy Juggler.
Just off the Big Circuits

PICTURES.
Little Detective
and Water Sprites.

A NEW BALLAD
by
MISS IDA LIDDLE

A Big Show Small Price

7 to 10:00 Each Evening

Matinee Saturday 2 to 5 p.m.

5c Admission 5c

J. W. GARRIN,
Auctioneer,

Residence on Ideal Stock Farm,
two miles north of Rushville.

Phone 3330.

EXPERT KNOWLEDGE OF
LIVE STOCK.

Engagements for Crying Sales Solicited.

Have Your Carpets Taken Up And Cleaned.

I am prepared to clean your carpets and rugs off the floor by the cleaning wheel, also prepared to put sizing on rugs of any size. Only three cents a yard for cleaning Ingrain carpets. Don't forget we make nice rugs out of your old carpets. Telephone factory No. 3241 and 1318. Rushville Rug Factory.

Raymond Sharp,
Proprietor.

171426

Coming and Going

—Miss Ruby Amos was in Indianapolis today.

—Carl Nipp was an Arlington visitor this morning.

—Mrs. Claude Cambren spent the day in Indianapolis.

—Rev. W. J. Cronin was a visitor to Indianapolis today.

—A. W. Tompkins was here yesterday on business.

—Liford Stiers of New Castle was here today on business.

—Oscar Hood of Mays was in this city today on business.

—Mrs. J. D. Case was an Indianapolis visitor today.

—Miss Mary Neutzenhelzer attended a dance in Connersville last night.

—Shelbyville News: John Armstrong is home after a visit in Rush county.

—Jack Knecht and Paul Harris attended the dance given at Connersville last night.

—Misses Martha Hogsett and Daisy Beale attended a dance at Connersville last night.

—Harold Wright attended the weekly dance given by Mr. Bush in Connersville last night.

—Postmaster McFarlan attended the meeting of the district postmasters today at Richmond.

—City Marshal Price returned Sunday from Columbus, Ohio, where he attended the races.

—Mrs. Earl Musselman of Indianapolis is here at the bedside of her mother who is seriously ill.

—Ralph Stiffler returned to Butler College this morning after a two days' visit with home folks.

—Lev. Wallace and Harry Boyd spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents in Connersville.

—George Daniels left yesterday evening for Lexington, Kentucky, where he will attend the races.

—Miss Venus Lowden left this morning for Arkansas where she will reside in the future with relatives.

—Connersville Examiner: Mrs. L. M. Clark of Rushville visited her daughter, Mrs. N. G. Wills, Sunday.

—Miss Daisy Crosby of Milroy went to Oldenburg today to attend the wedding of her cousin, Cleoda Hackman.

—Mrs. B. F. Miller returned yesterday evening from Portage Point, Mich., where she has been spending the summer.

—George C. Wyatt attended the meeting of the National Funeral Directors' Association at Indianapolis today.

—Rev. Abberley attended the meeting of the Christian church Foreign Missionary Society at Cincinnati yesterday.

—Mrs. Jesse Hinchman of St. Louis and Mrs. Mort Carter visited Mr. and Mrs. Clint Blackidge, south of the city yesterday.

—Dr. and Mrs. Balyet and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Good, of Allentown, Pa., are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Will Dagler at the Posey stock farm.

F. W. Porterfield of Richmond is at the Scanlan House this week.

L. Neutzenhelzer has three styles of winter Buggies. Call and see them.

The price is only 50 cents a box.

LAND FAMILY HELD REUNION

Met at Fair Ground Sunday and Had
An Enjoyable Day—Many Present.

WILL MEET AGAIN NEXT YEAR

One of the most enjoyable reunions held this year was that of the Land families at the fair grounds last Sunday. Mrs. Gillie Northern, aged 81 years, was the guest of honor for the day. Music for the occasion was furnished by George, Leonard and Joe Land, of Greenfield. At noon dinner was spread in the hall and was partaken of by sixty persons, after which the rest of the day was spent in a social way.

Those from a distance were John Land and family of Greenfield; John Northern and mother of Zionsville; Mort Campbell and family of Richmond; and Louis Land of Juliette. The rest of those present were residents of Rush county. Another reunion will be held next year.

EDITORIALETTES

A really dangerous man tries to avoid trouble.

Some enterprising man ought to get up a barn dance for the horse show.

Maybe politicos got so hot in Posey township that it started the fire at Arlington today.

What do you know about the Devil coming to Rushville?

Many people are getting their "peaches" now in spite of the great temperance agitation.

Most farmers would rather hitch up and drive eight miles rather than write a letter.

It is an awfully good thing for a man when he gets caught the first time he does wrong.

The Rushville father of several children has named his last one "Omega."

Why they fought: "Where are you going, dear?" "Out to the Gun Club." "Ah shoot!"—It's just a new phase of the old shell game.

Maybe the girl in jail just wanted to get in or out of the weather. She has been standing on the streets for two months talking through the bars.

It is getting so that a man can't rest secure in the possession of his rainy day fund so long as anything is left in either him or his wife that the doctors can cut out.

Red Cross Ball Blue

Should be in every home. Ask your grocer for it. Large 2 oz. package, 5 cents.

Company to Concede This

In each and every case where Sexine Pills do not bring back strength and steady nerves to any man or woman who has used six boxes, the company will either give without additional cost, six boxes more prolonged treatment, or will refund your $5. The company has been doing this for years, and still does so without quibble or red tape. Besides they do not want you to hesitate to send in your claim if necessary. Hargrove & Mullin, Rushville, endorse every word of this.

Fall Bulbs—Jardineres and Flower Pots.

MAUZY & DENNING

Special Values in Dress Goods.

Danish Cloth, Black and colors.....	13½
1 lot 50c Dress Goods, at.....	35c
54 inch $1.00 Gray Wool Cloths, at.....	69c
46 inch $1.00 Black All-Wool Henrietta, at.....	69c
56 inch $1.00 Black All-Wool Cheviot, at.....	69c
65c and 90c Cheviots, Batiste, Serges and Fancies at.....	50c
Extra Qualities in Chevrons, Serges, Worsted, Panama, Wool Taffeta, Poplins in stripes and plain, $1.00 and 1.50

Fancy Silks.

Plaids, Stripes, Plain Taffeta and Messalines, 50c to $1.00 Evening Silks in Pink, Light Blue and Cream. Poplin weave, a bargain at..... 50c

Bordered Wash Goods in Flanelettes, Sateens, Percale, Chalies, Caico.

Cloak and Suit Dept.: "WOOLTEX" styles are leaders for all America. Visit this Department often. New styles every week.

Have Your Dress Goods Sponged and Shrunk on our Duplex Machine. Buttons made from your own clothes.

NOVELTIES: Dirtoire Necklets, Felts, Pins, Veilings, Rushings, Lace Collars and Stock Collars.

Republican "Want ads" Bring Results

YOUR CHILD

Of course you are interested in the welfare of your child. You desire him to learn as rapidly as possible, in every way possible, and should assist him.

He cannot do his best at school with ill-fitting narrow toe shoes. Try a pair of our nature shaped, foot-form shoes. They are not only comfortable but stylish and durable as well.

CASADY & COX

Rushville, Indiana

CHESTER WHITE HOGS

I Won Every First Premium on Pigs at the Shelby Co. fair with four herds competing

The Farmer's Guide Field man said "I have attended all the fairs in the State and Dave Alter has the best Chesters I have seen this year.

Two Boars and a few Gilts for Sale.

D. O. ALTER, Rushville, Ind.

Rushville Telephone.

Connersville Auditorium Tuesday Evening, Oct. 6

The Great American Play

11 Months In New York

"Success"—New York Herald

"Season's best find"—Alan Dale, American

Held audience breathless—"Evening Journal,"

"Exceptionally absorbing drama,"—Times,

"Big dramatic hit,"—Acton Davies, Sun.

"Great,"—Warren McIntyre, Ameri-

5 Months in Chicago.

"Absorbing,"—Burns Mantle, Tribune

"Laughing with rich comedy,"—Amy Burns, News

"Strikes home,"—A. L. Hall, Journal

"Triumphant,"—Percy Hammond, Post.

"Great,"—Warren McIntyre, American.

"

Kitchen Profits.

GOLD MEDAL FLOUR
Bakes more to the pound
than other flour,
therefore saves money
for the housewife.

Use WASHBURN-CROSBY'S
GOLD MEDAL
FLOUR

Save Money.

Lady Betty Across the Water

By C. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON

COPYRIGHT, 1906, BY MCCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO.

In the afternoon I was reading in my deck chair, drawn close to Mrs. Ess Kay's side, when that Mrs. Van der Windt whom Sally called a silly old thing, toddled up and spoke to us. "Do come and watch them dancing in the steerage," she said. "It's such fun."

Mrs. Ess Kay likes sitting still on shipboard better than anything else, but it seems that Mrs. Van der Windt is so important that if all the Four Hundred Sally told me about were pruned away except about twenty-five, she would be among the number left; so probably that is the reason why Mrs. Ess Kay takes long walks up and down the deck with her, though it makes her giddy to walk, and Mrs. Van der Windt is not in the least entertaining.

She got up now, like a lamb about to be led to the slaughter, except that she smiled bravely, which the lamb would not be able to bring itself to do. "Come, Betty," she said to me, "it will amuse you."

"Yes, do come, Lady Betty," repeated Mrs. Van der Windt. Whereupon I obeyed, little knowing what I was laying up for myself.

Our deck is amidships. Aft on a level with ours, is the second class they're giving up something for a woman. They're used to it."

And evidently she, as an American woman, was used to taking it. She and Mrs. Van der Windt slipped into the vacant spaces with a bare "thank you," and I had to follow their example. We peered down over the rail, and there was a sight which would have been comical if it hadn't been pathetic.

On rather a rough looking deck, about twelve feet or more below us, a dense crowd was collected around two small squares, which they purposely left open. Besides those little squares every inch was occupied.

There wouldn't have been any more room for even a baby to sit down than there was in the Black Hole of Calcutta. In the crowd were old men, young men and boys, all poorly dressed, and old women, young women and girls, big and little. They wore crude, vivid colors and more than half of them had bright handkerchiefs tied over their heads. They scarcely took any notice of the first class passengers staring down superciliously or pitying

ly at their poor amusements; they were far too much absorbed in the dancing which was going on busily—I can't say gayly—in the two hollow squares. In one of these an elderly, pinched little man who looked almost half witted, was monotonously scraping a battered fiddle for two solemn couples to dance around and around, always on the same axis. But the other "dancing salon" was more lively. There a man dressed like a buffoon, with a tall hat, a lobster claw for a nose, a uniform with big red flannel epaulettes and pasteboard buttons covered with gold paper, was pretending to conduct the band. And what a band it was!

It consisted of four sailors, rather sheep faced and self conscious. One musical instrument was a wooden box rigged up with strings and a long handle, another was formed from a couple of huge soup spoons tied together on which the player beat rhythmically with a smaller spoon; the third was a poker dangling from a string banged heartily with an enormous nail as it swung to and fro; the fourth was a queer homemade drum, which looked as if it had been made out of a wooden bandbox.

Somewhat they contrived to coax out music of a sort, and a few young men and girls were solemnly gyrating to it in a way to make you giddy even to watch. When a man thought he had had enough or wanted to dance with another girl he dropped his partner with alarming suddenness, bowed stiffly without smile or word and left her. It was evidently etiquette not to speak to your partner. At the end of a dance the conductor with the lobster claw nose looked up to our deck, bowing low, with his hand on his heart, and then all the audience leaning over the rail began fumbling in their pockets if they were men or opening their purses or gold bags if they were women. Down poured a shower of small silver and copper, little boys scrambling to pick it up and hand it to the conductor, who would, Mrs. Van der Windt said, divide the money among the members of his quaint band.

I had a few shillings with me, and I'd been so much amused that I felt like being generous. Luckily mother couldn't see me and scold. I took half a dozen coins—shillings and sixpences—and, wrapping them hurriedly up in half the cover torn off a magazine I was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of the steerage faces as day is from night, and somehow it gave me quite a shock that such a man should be among those others, as if something must be wrong with the world or it could not happen. I had even a guilty sort of thrill, as if I had no right to be well dressed and prosperous, staring at him and his companions as though they were a show which we others paid to see—daring to amuse ourselves with the hard, strange conditions of their lives.

I've heard mother say that good blood is sure to prove itself, that a gentleman can't look like a common man

was reading, I aimed the little parcel to fall at the comic conductor's feet.

Generally I can throw fairly straight; for Stan took some pains with that part of my education when I was a small girl, but just at that instant some one standing next me moved, knocked me on the elbow and spoiled my aim.

Instead of falling in front of Mr. Lobster-Claw, the parcel hit the ear of a very tall young man among the crowd below, who had been standing with his back to me. He turned quickly, not knowing what had happened, glanced up and caught my eyes, as I was looking down quite distressed.

I had noticed his figure in the crush because he towered nearly a head over every one else, and I had a dim impression that he had good shoulders, but seeing his face gave me a great surprise.

It was as different from all the rest of

BIG FOUR ROUTE

CHICAGO and Return

Tickets to Gulf Deep Waterway Ass'n

Tickets sold Oct. 5, 6, and 7.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. and Return

National Irrigation Congress. Tickets

sold October 1st to 5...

LEXINGTON, KY., and Return

Kentucky Horse Breeders Ass'n.

Tickets sold October 5th to 15th.

DENVER and Return

Annual Convention National Women's

Christian Temperance Union.

Tickets on sale October 18th to 23d,

inclusive.

Annual Convention Federation of Labor. Tickets sold Nov. 4th to 10th, inclusive.

NEW ORLEANS and Return

Christian Church Convention. Oct. 8,

7 and 8. Good returning Oct. 24.

MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew. Tickets sold October 8th to 14th inclusive.

COLONIST TICKETS.

California, Mexico, British Columbia and Points in the West, Northwest and Southwest. On sale daily to October 31, 1908.

HOME SEEKERS' RATES.

To the West, Northwest, Southwest

Michigan, Mexico and British Possessions.

For detailed information see Agent

"BIG FOUR ROUTE."

H. J. REHIN, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

G. P. O. 73-Rep.

Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction Company.

In Effect November 15, 1907.

PASSENGER SERVICE

Trains Leave Rushville

West Bound	East Bound
5:01 a.m.	5:50 a.m.
6:09 a.m.	6:55 a.m.
7:01 a.m.	7:50 a.m.
8:09 a.m.	8:44 a.m.
10:09 a.m.	9:50 a.m.
11:01 a.m.	10:44 a.m.
12:09 p.m.	12:44 p.m.
1:01 p.m.	1:50 p.m.
2:09 p.m.	2:44 p.m.
4:09 p.m.	3:50 p.m.
5:01 p.m.	4:44 p.m.
6:09 p.m.	6:44 p.m.
8:01 p.m.	8:20 p.m.
10:01 p.m.	10:50 p.m.
12:01 a.m.	1:50 a.m.

Connersville Dispatch.

WEST BOUND.

Connersville Dispatch 8:59 a.m. and

2:59 p.m., making no stops between Rushville Station and

Indianapolis.

Stops at Shelbyville Junction on Signal.

EAST BOUND.

Connersville Dispatch at 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., making no stop between Rushville and Connorsville.

"Blue River Park" at Stop 17, near Morristown.

Connorsville, Boating and Fishing.

EXPRESS SERVICE.

WEST BOUND.

8:20 a.m. and 6:20 p.m.

EAST BOUND.

5:15 a.m. and 3:15 p.m.

For Special Information Call Phone

1407.

I. & C. TRACTION COMPANY.

EVERY SUNDAY

50 Cents

and return

INDIANAPOLIS

Tickets good going on the following trains:

Special 6:24 a.m.

Dispatch 8:59 a.m.

Special 10:48 a.m.

Tickets good on all trains as scheduled on Sunday for which sold.

"That Which Is Worth Having Is Worth Advertising For"

The old adage that what is worth having is worth asking for, is still true—true of the more intricate life of today.

The thing you want—whether it is a used piano or a home, whether it is a ready-made business or a lost pocket-book—is obtained readily through a Daily Republican Want Ad, and with difficulty, or not at all, through other means.

TELEPHONE. 1111.

ESTABLISHED FORTY-SEVEN YEARS

Monuments

I have a large stock of high grade work to select from at prices that will save you money. Lettering done with pneumatic tools. All work guaranteed.

J. B. SCHRIECKE

NO CONCERN OF THIS COUNTRY

Uncle Sam Has No Occasion to Worry Over Latest Row.

NOT OFFICIALLY INTERESTED

No Memorandum on the Subject of Probable War in the Near East Has

Been Transmitted to This Government, Our Interests Over There Not

Being of a Character to Warrant Our

Assumption of Concern in a Political Situation So Purely European.

Washington, Oct. 6.—The definitive treaty of Berlin, ratified Aug. 3, 1878, like the preliminary treaty of peace between Russia and Turkey signed at San Stefano earlier in the year, established Bulgaria as an autonomous tributary principality under the sultan's suzerainty with a Christian government and national militia. The Prince of Bulgaria was to be freely chosen by the population and confirmed by the porte, with the assent of the signatory powers. A provisional administration under a Russian commissioner until the organic law was completed, to last not exceeding nine months, was provided for. The organic law of 1868, with equitable modifications, the sultan of Turkey undertook to apply to the Island of Crete, and to introduce similar laws, except as regards exemption from taxation, in other parts of Turkey in Europe for which the Balkan treaty provided no special organization.

Bosnia and Herzegovina, as before stated, were to be occupied by Austria-

Hungary except the Sandjaks of Novi

Bozar, between Servia and Montenegro, where the Ottoman administration was to continue according to the wish of Austria. Montenegro was recognized by Turkey and all the contracting powers as an independent state.

Servia was recognized as independent with its territory considerably enlarged.

Commercially, American interests in the Balkan states affected by recent developments in that section of the world are not very important, and it matters little what their political affiliations or conditions may be, so long as American interests are on an equality as affecting trade and the rights of its citizens, with those of European countries. Imports from and exports to Bulgaria for the last year for which statistics are available, practically balanced, amounting in each case to about $280,000. Bosnia and Herzegovina send sheep and goat skins in large quantities to Great Britain and the United States. In diplomatic matters it probably would be more satisfactory to the United States to deal directly with Bulgaria as an independent sovereignty instead of

through the medium of Turkey, as

now. The case of Miss Ellen Stone, the American missionary who several years ago was captured by Bulgarian brigands and held for ransom, is an instance in point. There were long and tedious delays in securing her release which it is believed could have been avoided had the United States been able to deal with Bulgaria at first hand. The whole situation is a very interesting one in the view of the officials, but it is no concern of this country, according to statements made at the state department, and no memorandum on the subject has been transmitted to this government. In diplomatic circles, however, the Balkan situation is the one topic of discussion.

As one official said, it portends serious

eventualities should war result, but yet

it may be cleared up in very short or der through tactful diplomatic efforts.

By some administration officials whose opinions are worth considering because of their familiarity with world politics, the fear is that war will most likely follow, as the Turks will be incined to fight and are ready to put a large force in the field. While the American government has no direct important interest at stake, it would

LOCAL NEWS

This is the last week of the present term of court.

Ed. Wallace of New Castle was in this city today on business.

The regular petit jury was dismissed by Judge Sparks yesterday.

Judge Sparks will go to Shelbyville next Monday where court convenes.

There was a ring around the moon last night. That stands for something.

A marriage license was issued to Walter H. Kuhn and Miss Bertha M. Gahimer today.

The Eastern Stars will hold a meeting in their lodge rooms tonight. A full attendance is desired.

Mrs. Will McBride is in a critical condition and not much hope is entertained for her recovery.

Society A Brand

Clothes for young men and men that wish to stay young.

O. P. C. H.

Real Estate Farms For Sale
160 Acres, Five Miles from Rushville
 $\frac{1}{2}$ Mile from stop on I. & C Traction
Line. Best Bargain Offered
NOBLE BRANN,
WARREN P. ELDER.
Don't Forget We Handle
Western Lamps

Pay Your Telephone Bill Now.

All bills not paid by the twelfth day of the month at the office of the company, a messenger fee of 15 cents will be immediately added and if not paid on demand services will be discontinued.

By order of the Board.
 174-7d W. T. JACKSON, Sec'y.

The little Candy Cold Cure Tablets called Preventives will in a few hours safely check all Colds or LaGrippe. Try them. 48-25c. Sold by F. B. Johnson & Co.

If you use ball blue get Red Cross Ball Blue, the best ball blue. Large 2 oz. package, 5 cents.

DRILLS.

E. A. Lee sells the Little Kentucky and Superior wheat drills. See them.

THE FIRST COUGH

The wise thing to do is to take a cough remedy the moment that a cough begins. A reliable, tried and tested preparation is Dr. Behr's Expectorant—a cure that really does cure coughs and Colds quickly and effectively. Now is the season that a neglected cold may hang through the winter. Take it in hand today.

PRICES, 25c and 50c

F. B. JOHNSON,

DRUGS AND WALL PAPER.

REV. LOGAN WILL SPEAK TONIGHT

Will Address District Meeting of Missionary Society at Second M. E. Church.

GOOD MEETING LAST NIGHT

At the meeting of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Indiana District of the Lexington Conference, held last night at the Second M. E. church, the address of welcome was delivered by Miss Fannie May Ramsey, and the response was made by Rev. I. F. White of Anderson. The meeting was an interesting one and proved to be a good starter for the two days' session.

Tonight's address will be given by Rev. G. G. Logan of Hollow Springs, Miss., on the subject, "Foreign Missions."

Several delegates are here from Indianapolis, Connersville, New Castle, Anderson and other places over the State.

PRESIDENT HENRY TO MAKE ADDRESS

Charles L. Henry Will Speak to the Soldiers of Two Important Battles.

HONORARY MEMBER OF 89TH

The annual reunion of the 89th Indiana Regiment and the 9th Indiana Battery in Connersville Wednesday and Thursday will be an enjoyable occasion and arrangements are being made to entertain the visitors in good style.

Both these organizations took part in some of the hardest battles as well as in some of the most important of the Civil war. Altogether they were in about twenty-two battles, including that at Shiloh and also at Vicksburg.

The campfire at the Christian church will be one of the most enjoyable features of the reunion. The old veterans will be addressed by Charles L. Henry of Indianapolis, an honorary member of the regiment. Mr. Henry's brother was major of the 89th.

There are 160 surviving members of the regiment and many of them are expected to attend this meeting.

AMUSEMENTS

If you are a sufferer from piles, Manzan Pile Remedy will bring relief with the first application. Guaranteed. Price 50c. Sold by Lytle's drug store.

FURNISHED ROOM—Front room for rent. 232 West Second St. 174-6

FOR SALE—An air tight wood heating stove. Also good drum; fine heater. 226 North Perkins street.

PHENLOPE: None better than Gold Medal Flour. VERONICA.

Joe Burto, the comedy juggler at the Vandet theater last night, was just as good as the advance notice said he would be. He is clever in his line and kept the audience laughing all the time. The two films of the program are entertaining, especially the "Little Detective." The "Water Sprites" is another good film.

The Vincent's made a big hit at the Grand theater last night. Frank Vincent is especially clever in his black face stunts. He was formerly with the Al. G. Fields minstrel troupe which in itself is sufficient recommendation. The films, "The Suicidal Poet" and "In the Nick of Time" are comic and kept the audience in an uproar at every performance last night.

"Paid in Full," a strong American play with a long New York and Chicago run to its credit, will be seen in Connersville tonight at the Auditorium. It is the work of Eugene Walters, a former newspaper man and is considered the best play written in this country in years.

Baum's Stock Food, the best on the market at L. Neutzenhelzer's.

LOCAL DELIGATES ATTEND

State Meeting of K. of P. Grand Lodge Began Today.

Several from this city attended the meeting of the Knights of Pythias Grand Lodge which began today in Indianapolis. Delegates from all over the State were present. Each hundred members entitle the order to one delegate. Homer Gregg, Selman Webb and S. A. Glare are the local representatives. The meeting will last two days. The State meeting of the Pthian Sisters will begin tomorrow at the Capital City.

A marriage license has been granted to Edward Gantner and Miss Marie Carroll.

Protracted meeting will begin at Moscow tonight, conducted by Rev. E. L. Frazier of Morristown.

Very Important for Rushville Ladies.

N. Rose, the well known dealer in imported suitings, silks and dress goods will have on display his fall novelties Thursday and Friday from 1 to 5:30 p. m., and Saturday all day at 219 West Second street. Reduced prices will be given on all the stock. Come early and get your first choice.

175t4

Plush and Fur Robes and Horse Blankets at L. Neutzenhelzer's.

"The Store For Particular People."

Hargrove & Mullin~Drugs
Quality First

THE BEST IN TOILET WATERS

Colgate's Toilet Waters are almost as good as perfumes. In fact we sell these waters to lots of our customers who use them instead of perfumes.

If you want the best, see our line of 25c and 50c

COLGATE'S

Violet, La France Rose, Carnation, Cashmere Bouquet.

WALL PAPER AND PAINTS

Our line is complete and Up-to-Date. We feel sure we can please you. You are especially invited to call and see our

NEW 1909 WALL PAPERS.

They Will Interest You as Our Prices are Below Competition.

FINE FRAMING A SPECIALTY.

G. P. McCARTY

Republican "Want ads" Bring Results

CLOTHES THAT YOU'LL LIKE

Copyright, 1908,
by L. ADLER,
BROS. & CO.

Copyright, 1908,
by L. ADLER,
BROS. & CO.

THERE is something about our fall showing of Suits and Overcoats which makes us enthusiastic to a degree—it may be the fetching styles, it may be the smart patterns, it may be the value, it may be the low prices, or it may be all four—that YOU can easily learn for yourself when you see them.

Not a few styles to select from, but an assortment most complete in fabrics, patterns and styles, with a wide range of prices from $15 to $30.

Copyright, 1908,
by L. ADLER,
BROS. & CO.

RAINCOATS

They come in Oxfords, Grays and Tans, and we show a full assortment—cravanned of course. Come and try on a garment that looks good to you.

Copyright, 1908,
by L. ADLER,
BROS. & CO.

FRANK WILSON CLOTHIER.

THIS MATTER OF SMOKE.

We are sure that our view of the cigar business is unusual. Most druggists and all cigar dealers sell cigars to make money. We sell them to make friends—and money too in the long run. We want to get smokers into the store and let them judge what kind of a business we conduct by the kind of a cigar they get. In cigars as in drugs we get the best that money can buy.

LYTLE'S DRUG STORE.